An allusion has been made to the principle and the history of the Democratic party, which affords me an opportunity to glance at the measures which have divided the country during the latter years of fiv party existen a. Both the old Wing and the old Democratic area disrupted in 1854. The one last its network and the other rotained its name and lost its principl. S. Now, what think you of the honesty of the man who will tell you the Missouri Compromise was repealed or was required to be repealed by the Compromises of 1850? What do old Clay Whigs think of the man who has the assurance to may Henry Clay necessitated the repeal of the Missouri Compromise? Let me tell you as my caddid onjoin of. Henry Clay had been living

But Mr. Dougas had other excuses for repealing the Missouri Compromise. One of them was that it was necessary to establish the great principle of self-povernment and popular sovereignty? Well, what is the great principle of self-government? The right of the people to govern themselves—is it not? Well, seeing that we had possessed that right for some seventy-eight years, what new efficacy did Mr. Douglas propose to give it? Why, the right simply to make a slave of somebody else. [Great laughter.] Now, let me sak you in all seriousness, was this the principle for which our fathers fought against Great Britain for eight long years? Suppose somebody had told Washington and his army at Valley Forge that they were suffering and shedding the best blood of the Angle-Saxon race to enable posterity to make slaves of other people—that this was in reality the sacred right of self-government for which they were contending! My friends, this is too ridiculous to talk about. It is beneath serious consideration. [Applause.]

But let us pursace this subject of the honesty which entered into the respect of the Missouri Compromise. The Mobrastis full passed with a singular explanatory clause in one of its sections, to the effect this the people should be left perfectly free to form their own domestic institutions—respect. Principle of the Proper of the people when had been left "perfectly free," to form their own domestic institutions—respect. Principle of the Propert of the people who had been left "perfectly free," to form their own domestic institutions—respect. Principle of the Missouri were overpowered by men from Missouri, who took possession of the ballot boxes and elected all their officers for them. You know too that this naurpation was sustained at Washington by Mr. Pierce and Mr. Dougles. The Delegate all their officers for them. You know too that this nearpation was sustained at Washington by Mr. Fierce and Mr. Doughes. The Delegate to Congress, elected by the invaders from aissouri, Mr. Wittield, came to Washington and presented his or dentials. His seat was contested. The -House of Revr. enaistir: 1 appointed a committee to go to Kansas and investigate the allegations of fraud in the election. They did so; and after taking all the evidence they could get hold of, and copying the poll hooks of the whole Territory, they reported that out of 6,300 office cast, 4,900 was given by citizens of hissouri. The House of Representatives terned. Whitfield out, but the beggs Legislature was still sust ince by the government and army of the United States. mentand army of the United States. Yet we are to presume that the people all the while were being less "perfectly free". [Grest laughter.]

Now come down another step. In 1856 the Classimast Convention was and resorted among other things that the people of all the Territories had a right to form constitutions with or without domestic slavery, "whencher it has mander of their inhobitions yet feel it. In 1854 they were to admit or "allide slavery at once—being left per feells 'pres—but two years later they are to admit or "allide slavery at once—being left out the two times later they are to admit or "allide slavery at once—being left out the two the offths powers at Washington "the number of their inhobitants justifies it." It is sometimes necessary when we have a reminal on trial to remember where he was at and what he was doing on certain days. [Langhter,] When the Convention adjourned, Converges, which had been preity much broken up by the doings of the Democracy at Cincinnia, and the same month—Toombs of Georgia, introduced a bill to authorise the people of Kansan to form a State government. Douglas talls us at the recent sestion of Congr. that this Toombs bill was a "party measure." The bill contained a clause in its 18th section, p oviding in unmistantials terms for a submission of the Constitution to a vo. of the pope. Toombs cays in appeals during the last section, when will be found on page 187 of the Appendix to the Congressional (flock, that this claume got into the bell "by mackine." He says the first twelve sections of the bull were written by himself. The balance he says was cut off with a pair of seissors from another bill, and in this way the sammission clause got in. He goes on to state that, having got in by sendent, "it was attricken out at my suggestion as a matter of course." Now mark; on the 4th of dunns the Democratic party were going to let the people of, Kansan form a constitution in their own war, with or without like these in their shortest law liberties are gone; there is nothing law locaries to be tolerate. [Loud applause.]

But there is a party in Il inois claiming to be one or two per cent. better than the "National Democracy." [Laughter.] They say it is led on by a "giant." He is that kind of a giant, on by a "giant." He is that kind of a giant, it turns out, who sees his old friend Issue Curit turns out, who sees his old friend Issue Curit turns out, who sees his old friend Issue Curit turns out, who sees his old friend Issue Curit turns out, who sees his old friend Issue Curit turns out, who sees his old friend Issue Curit turns out, who had his friend Guseral Fry. makir if an impossionity, the bear the bear from the first appearance of their bills. I can reashe reasons in the signs of the times in notify language than that there is a large interest that city in the business of making current this city in the business of making current this city in the business of making current this city in the business of making current.

of feeding vipers, so that they can strike their fangs still deeper into the vitals of commerce? Have not merchants—those who now are more interested by having a sound correcey—been the means of giving credit to "Bob Tail" currency in giving their patronage to men whose business it is to make it purely for speculation and circulation and not for redemption? It is well enough to consider the question at least, and ask curselves, as a body, how far we are responsible to ris a existence in this direction of our influence.

There is nothing surer than that we must submit to inconvenience and it is sooner or later on a large share of our currency unless we liquidate it while their securities are ample, and supply its place with something that represents money instead of State indebtedness. Then why not encourage every move with our sympathy and support, as a body, which has in view its liquidation, and what better plan can we pursue than to throw the weight of our influence and guissiness with such bankers as will do this work?

Let me record, in conclusion, that the Repub

Leather of Superior Quality licans of old Fulton, and especially those resident about this pleasant city of Canton, are Celtic Exodus to the Interior.

One of our citizens writes you to day in re-spect to the importation of voting machines into this district. He showed me his letter to you before mailing. All he says is true, but he omits some things that I think it best you knew. Between twenty and thirty of these "Doug-las" Irish have come on each day for the last week as may as foun learn, and all have been week, as near as I can learn, and all have been dropped off between Pera and Effingham. I have conversed with employees of the road who are Lincoln men, and while they concede there is a heavy Celtic importation into the closely balanced counties, they think that the Illinois Central Company are not parties to it. I hope it is so, but the thing wears an ugly lock. Should you see Mr, —, who runs between Chicago and Centralia, he can inform you of one "importation" that pesed down the road the other night. There is no longer any doubt about the pat-riot-ic stampede into this week, as near as I can learn, and all have been any doubt about the pai-riot-ic stampede into this section of the State, and Just as little about its real object. An employee of the I. C. road who has good opportunities for knowing, expresses the belief that over eight hundred Irish have been sont from the upper parts of the State into the close counties of the interior within a month. He includes the Alton and Chicago road with ours as a line of travist. A gentleman from Ohio informs me that he: w, on his way here, handbills in that State, conspicuously posted, stating that 2,000 men were wanted to work on railroads in Central Illinois. Would inform Book Makers and the public sea-wraity, that they are in receipt of their floring and beaumer Seck, consisting in part of Hamlook and that Soles, Prench and Domestic Dall and Kip Skins, Oak Tanned and Hemlook Upper, Morecova & large agoort-ment, Lindings of great variety of colore Leats, Findings, Colimping Machine, &c. Illinois.

Our people here are becoming excited about these Celtic importations. There can only be one parpose for which they are sent here, viz to carry the doubtful counties for Stephen A Douglas. There will be bloodshed before this stupendous swindle is consummated. There are too many old Clay Whigs, born and raise in Kentucky, living in this section of Illinois to tamely submit to such foreign dictation are interference in their demestic concerns.

Political colonization in this and Coles County as commenced. Forty Irish were landed at has commenced. Forty Irish were landed at Fera night of the Sth; about the same number passed here yesterday for Mattoon, and this morning some twenty stopped here. Those stopping here pretended they were hired "to go to Centralis to work for the railroad company; lat his pian that hired sheen was left in Chicago, and the conductor put them off! They all, in less than two hours, had left for the country, manifesting prest resignation to the fate that so unceremoniously sets them adrift, consoling themselves with expressions that showed great moral improvement, "that they had rather work for an houest farmer for twenty-five cents a day than for so wicked a company for ninety!"

than for so wicked a company for ainety!"

The Divorce Scandal in Indiana.
The extent to which the divorce scandal has proceeded in Indiana may be inferred from the following current paragraph, clipped from an exchange:

States.

It is a wonder that this crying disgrace has been so long tolerated by the people of Indiana, and we are glad to see a motion made for the abatement of the minance. The Lafayette Currier advises the electors to "vote for no man for representative in either hranch of the State Legislature who is not in favor of the immediate repeal of the scandalous divorce laws which have converted Indiana into an asyjum for all who wish to ease themselves from their marriage vows."

CURA, TAMAULITAS, POTOST AND OTHER MEXICAN STATES WANTED FOR SLAVENY.

I want a footing in Central America for other reasons, or rather for a continuation of the reasons already given. I sound Cuba, and I know that, nonner or later, see must have it. If the worth-caten throne of Spain is willing to give it up for a fair equivalent, well; if rot, we must take it. I want Lamanilpus, Putosi, and one or two other Mexican States; and I want them all for the same reason, for the planting and oprocaing of classery. And a fooding in tentral Americ, will powerfully ald us in negoting those other States. It will render them less walnulm to the other powers of the least, and thereby ("uninish competition with us. Yes, I want the .comunies for the spread of alswery. I would spread the blessings of slavery, like the rei join of our Divine Manter, (1) to the interact, each of the earth; said, rebellious and world not force religion upon them; but would preach it to them as I would preach the total conditions and would preach it to them as I would preach the suppose. They are a slif-sacched and rebellious ruce, and I have little hope that they will receive the blessing; and I would, therefore, prepare for its spried to other more favored lands. Hon. A. G. Brown on Slavery, SlaveryExtension, Fillibustering, the Union, the Yankees, and Dremocracy.

Hon. A. G. Brown, U. S. Senator from Missisppi, addressed a portion of his constituents at a barbeone given in his honor at Hazlehurst, Sept. 11th., on which occasion he indorsed Mr. Douglas most heartily, following him up as the main stay and hope of the Southern States in their scheme for extending slavery, and perpetuing the controlling inducant of the Slavery.

That our readers may have a clear conception of the kind of work they expect Mr. Douglas to assest them in performing, we quote several extracts from the speech of Senator Brown, premising that the latter gentleman has been intimately associated with Senator Douglas for many years, and speaks from full knowledge of the man when he indorses him as being thoroughly devoted to the strength of the st ating the controlling influence of the Slavery-Oligarchy in the Federal Government. That our readers may have a clear conception of the kind of work they expect Mr. Douglas to assess them in performing, we quote several extracts from the speech of Senator Brown, premising that the latter gentleman has been intimately asso-ciated with Senator Douglas for many years, and speaks from full knowledge of the man when he indorses him as being thoroughly devoted to the South in the grand scheme of fillbustering and slavery-extension which his speech devel-opes:

Personal and Political. The Hon. Jefferson Davis has spent most The Hon. Jefferson Davis has spent most of the Summer in New England, principally din Maine, and it is reported that, though he has made speeches on several public occasions, he has not uttered a single disunion sentiment. On the contrary, he has been uniformly lavish in praise of Yankee institutions. He will have to explain when he goes back to Mississippi. His pro-slavery orthodoxy is already called in question by several Southern journals.

But is an evi hour the President listened to evil commels, and Walker's expedition was broken up, and himself brought back a prisoner of state. I expressed myself pretty freely shout this transaction at the time, and I shall not now repeat what I said then; but there is a branch of the subject to which I want to call your special attention. About the time Walker was fitting out his expedition, and while he felt very certain if he did not violate the laws, he would not be molested, the Necretary of State entered into a treaty with a Mr. Yrisasri, the stipulations of which I sessume, for I do not pretend in his consection to have seen the treaty, were incon-—The Hon. It is said, I know, that these Central American barbarians, co. agiomerase of Indian, pageo and Cett, have been recognized by some of the powers of Europe as independent States. Well, suppose they have. Would not the same powers have recognized the Choctaws, Chickasswa, and every other Indian tribe, as independent if our government had not interposed to prevent it? We have treaties our olves with the Central American States. So we have with the Indian tribes. But these treaties, no odds however, and over other lates treaties, no odds however, on the same power of their land when the expansion of our people and the spread of civilization required us to have it. No, no, this is all fadge and funtian, signifying nothing. If we want Gentral America, the cheaped, ensied and quicket may be of sit to go and take it, and if France and England interfere, read the Monroe doctrine to them.

THE MARPHOLD BURSENGA OF BLAYERT.

If any one desires to know why I want a foothold in Central America, I save frankly it is because I wont to plags alterny there. Great Republican Tr PENNSYLVANIA AND

The election returns which this morning are of the most grat racter. The Republicans are glos torious in Ohlo, Pennsylvania an What our majorities in these stal we cannot definitely state, but the i are that it will not vary im 15,000 in Pennsylvania, 15,000 15,000 in Pennsylvania, 15,000 and 5,000 in Indiana. In Pen the revolution is complete. If Berks has lost its Democratic and Mr. Jehn Giancy Jones private life. Jones' majority in 6,004. The probabilities are that in States the Republicans have galtweive to fifteen Congressmen. Our dispatches from Iowa are to to give any clue to the result in the green of the confident, however, that one have done nobly, and that in a day a shall have ample proof of the fact. Now let the opponents of slave sion, Dred Scott Demberacy in Illin work with renewed zoal and confide feel very certain that they have I power to roll up a larger majority it co-workers have done in either of States that voted on Tuesday last. ve they will do it.
